

Alexandra Desbiens

Speaker - Mentor - Leadership Coach

Being a leader in education is more than a title. Educators have it in them to innovate, inspire and create lasting impact. Through her presentations, Alexandra will guide you to becoming the leader you aspire to be.

Speaker Bio

Alexandra's journey as an educational leader has been one of self-discovery, shaped by the passion and dedication of those she has worked alongside. She began her career as a classroom teacher for students with intellectual disabilities, where she learned that creativity and innovation are essential to making learning meaningful and inclusive. Over the past 15 years, as a vice principal, principal, and director, Alexandra has fostered that same spirit of innovation among educators. She is now focused on inspiring others to grow their leadership through speaking and mentorship opportunities.
